BETH-EL HOSPITAL

Colorado Springs, Colorado

Is the Only Protestant Hospital in Colorado
Springs and the Only Methodist Hospital in Colorado Conference

THE facilities of Beth-El Hospital are planned to meet the wishes of everyone. Each department—maternity, medical, surgical—has its own supervising nurse, who is a specialist in her work and who is aided by a competent and ample corps of nurses. Making use of Beth-El during illness of any kind not only aids the patient to better recovery, but at the same time saves worry and confusion among the remaining members of the household.

The situation of the hospital is quiet, restful and beautiful, ideal for effective treatment and recuperation of the sick. Special attention is given to Diabetic patients. This can be done in a thorough manner because of the excellent facilities of our laboratory and dietetic departments.

The Beth-El Hospital Training School for Nurses is a fully accredited Class A school, offering a full three years' course covering all the branches of nursing.

BISHOP RALPH SPAULDING CUSHMAN

REVEREND JOHN JAMES LACE

When we saw Dr. Lace in the Annual Conference, we knew that no business of importance would be overlooked. He knew procedure and method, and his voice was authoritative on church government. Alert, quick to decide, instantly commanding his resources, with a vigorous, flowing speech, he was a sterling debater, and was always heard with respect. We followed him as pastor, were co-workers in the District Superintendency, recognized his skill as a cabinet officer, found ourselves under his administration—and in all of these relations we were aware of his great gifts, his prophetic insights, his unfailing loyalties to the church. He was and is a student of men and of books, and a preacher of distinction, always seeking for the vital in message and expression. In his personal and social relations, he is by instinct, training and natural choice, a Christian gentleman of unfailing courtesy.

Why did Dr. Lace ask for retirement? His administrative powers were at their best. No one ever hinted that his acuteness of thought had diminished. Was it because the calendar with a menacing finger was pointing out the exit? What has the calendar to do with a man whose feet are on the highway and who has learned that "the best of life is yet to be?" Perhaps those of us who knew him best did not quite understand him. May we guess that back of that strong voice that was vibrant with conviction, there was a highly sensitive soul, almost too finely wrought for his personal comfort, and which urged him to lay aside a work dear to him as his life, that others younger in years might carry on? But Dr. Lace will never quit, for the old song is in his heart and the old delight is on his lips, and the warrior shout will not die away until the Master says, "It is enough."

Resolution—On motion by J. R. Wood, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, the decrease in the rate of payment to retired men and widows of deceased ministers was cut by action of our last Conference session from $22.00 per annuity year to $20.00 per annuity year, and

Whereas, deductions amounting to 18 per cent were taken from each check during the past year to make up for the failure of the churches to meet their apportionments during the preceding year, this deduction being reckoned on the cut rate of $20.00 per year instead of the old rate of $22.00 per year prevailing when the deficits of the churches occurred, and

Whereas, there is now another cut in the rate and another reduction not only threatened but almost certain, due to the same causes, therefore

Be It Resolved: That we, the retired ministers and widows of deceased ministers, by unanimous vote, hereby appeal to the members of the Colorado Annual Conference in active service to recognize and obey the moral obligations placed upon them by the law of the church and to carefully pro-rate all ministerial claims, and send up to our next Conference session the full quota for Conference claimants as required by the Discipline.

(Signed)

The Retired Ministers Association of the Colorado Annual Conference.

VI. Reports

(b) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY, 1932

It is with gratitude to Almighty God that your Committee on the American Bible Society submits the following report showing in some measure the great progress made in this most important field of missionary enterprise.

The Society last year completed six new translations of the Scriptures to be used in Peru, Guatemala, the Philippine Islands and Siam.

It has completed the revision of Scriptures previously issued in three other dialects and printed the first edition of the whole New Testament or separate Gospels in several other new translations which are needed in Missions now at work in Panama, various places in Africa and in Turkey.

As of the beginning of this year, the Bible, in whole or in part, can now be obtained in 924 different languages and dialects, all of which the Bible Society furnishes at or below cost of production.

Your Committee would remind you that the Society, through its Denver office, furnishes rent free: stereopticon lectures on Bible work; an exhibit of Scriptures printed in forty different languages, posters, leaflets and general information for addresses and sermons to pastors on request.

We would also call attention to Universal Bible Sunday, which comes on December 4th this year. The theme will be "Rejoicing in Hope." Attractive material will be mailed to every pastor, and we recommend that on this or some other near date such a service be planned for all churches.

We wish to express our appreciation of the most splendid work that Dr. A. F. Ragatz, as Secretary, has done, and assure him our hearty support of the American Bible Society and himself.

JOHN M. FLYNN, Chairman.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

We rejoice in the long and splendid service of Dr. Claudius B. Spencer as editor of the Christian Advocate, and we assure him of our affection as, in a new capacity, he continues to serve our church and Christ.

To the new editor, Dr. Dan B. Brummitt, we pledge our whole-hearted loyalty and support. We recognize in the Christian Advocate our assistant pastor and wish it could be placed in every Methodist home. We urge every pastor to do his utmost to secure at least one subscription for each ten members. We are glad that the Kansas City edition is to be continued and, realizing that its further continuance is dependent upon the support we give it, we set as an immediate goal for the Colorado Annual Conference two thousand subscriptions by January, 1933—550 for the Denver District, 300 for the Grand Junction District, 600 for the Greeley District, and 550 for the Colorado Springs-Pueblo District. Let Good Literature Day be observed in every church.

The Church School publications of the Methodist Book Concern are of the highest quality and ought to be used throughout all our church schools. We ask pastors and church school officials to cooperate to this end.

We commend the Methodist Book Concern for the splendid display of books at this Conference, and we urge our pastors to patronize the Book Concern as far as possible. We call attention to the fact that the sale of books by popular book clubs is seriously affecting the sales of the Book Concern.

We deplore that fact that the reduction of support of pastors has made it very difficult for many to buy the books essential for the most efficient ministry. We suggest that groups of pastors arrange for the systematic exchange of books, whereby may be provided the larger use of such new books as are purchased. We suggest, also, that greater use be made of the loan library of the Iliff School of Theology.

B. A. BESSIRE, Chairman.

BETH-EL HOSPITAL COMMITTEE'S REPORT

The Beth-El General Hospital has rendered a most valuable Christian service. We rejoice in the continued favor in which the institution is held by the churches.

As a basis for the future cooperation of the Colorado Conference with the Beth-El General Hospital in its ministry of healing to those who are unable to pay, and in order to clearly define our future moral and financial obligation for free service, we respectfully submit for your consideration the following recommendations:

1. That the churches of the Colorado Conference continue to support the free work ministry of Beth-El Hospital as hereinafter defined.
2. That the Colorado Conference shall determine annually an amount to be raised, but shall not be liable beyond the amount received.
3. That the pastors and churches heartily cooperate in promoting the sources of income for free service through special Hospital and Easter offerings and through Hospital Guilds or similar organizations.
3. That the last Sunday in October be observed as Beth-El Hospital Sunday for the receiving of the free service offerings, and that wherever advisable a Harvest Home Festival be held.
4. That the Conference Hospital Committee be given annually an itemized statement of the Conference Free Service fund disbursement.
5. That the Conference approves the plan of Hospitalization Insurance.
6. That the Conference approves the idea of securing Training School scholarships.
7. That each pastor use his influence in securing County aid for patients sent in on a Free Service basis.
8. That for the Conference year 1932-1933 the Conference set a goal of $10,000.00, exclusive of present pledges, and that at least 50 per cent of cash receipts from the churches for hospital service be designated to be paid on the Conference Free Service deficit.

RUFUS C. BAKER, Chairman.

BETH-EL HOSPITAL SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

I wish to express my appreciation for the fine spirit of loyalty and hearty cooperation that you have shown toward the work of the Hospital this year. You have received the report of the special campaign and the auditor is now preparing a statement which will be mailed to those desiring it.

We owe a debt of gratitude to the members of our medical staff, who have given without stint their talents and time to help take care of the needy cases which have been sent to us. It was with their help that we were able to offer to take care of crippled children and county patients which you might send to us.

You, as we, can well be proud of our Nursing School. Here is an educational institution of the highest type, with an enrollment of seventy-six at present. It is a Christian school for Christian young women and we always expect to keep it as such. You who have had our Nurses' Glee Club in your churches will agree with me that these young women represent the highest type of Christian young women.

The Guilds have meant a great deal to us, as they have to you. We ask that you give them your cooperation, and especially your encouragement, for they will help you more than anything else in promoting the interest of the Hospital in your churches. Mrs. Lottie B. Spyker, who has been in charge of the guild work since its beginning, feels she cannot meet the demands that she must meet this next year, and has resigned. In her stead we have appointed Mrs. J. A. Smith.

In the years to come we want to continue to render the high type of service that we have rendered in the past to our church and to Him whom we serve and whose we are.

GUY M. HANNER, Superintendent.

TEMPORARY COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE MINUTES

We recommend:

1. That the Conference create a standing commission of six members to be appointed by the chair.

2. That the Commission, in cooperation with the Conference Secretary, shall have full authority in all matters pertaining to, and be charged with the responsibility of, compiling, publishing, distributing and financing the Conference Minutes.

3. That the cost involved be equably divided among the various charges of the Conference and included as a separate item in the regular apportionments, except in the following cases:

- a. Members of the Colorado Conference serving in Mission Conferences.
- b. Men in detached or connectional service and
- c. Student pastors, all of whom shall be apportioned personally on the basis of five cents for each $100 unit of their cash salary.

The giving of free copies to widows, retired members and others shall be left to the discretion of the Commission.

4. That the Commission be requested to secure space in some fireproof vault as soon as practicable and store therein all the valuable records and documents of the Colorado Conference. The cost of the same to be paid out of the Minute Fund.

A. F. RAGATZ, Chairman.

THE PERMANENT COMMISSION ON PUBLICATION OF THE MINUTES

Your Commission on Conference Minutes finds that an emergency exists in the Minute Fund. The General Conference requires that we publish the Minutes of the Conference. The Secretary estimates that it will require $650 to pay for the printing of the Minutes of this Conference and to meet past obligations. There is on hand, including the amount paid in at this session of the Conference, $306.00, leaving a balance yet to be raised of $344.00.

The Secretary sent out to pastors of the Conference an apportionment to cover the cost of publication. If this apportionment could be secured in full, it would be ample for our needs.

We therefore recommend that the Conference approve of the apportionment made by the Conference Secretary for this Conference, one-fourth of one per cent of the total salary, on the basis of the report to the session of 1931 for all charges in the Conference. This payment to entitle the pastors to receive two copies of the Minutes. Additional copies to be purchasable at 15 cents per copy.

One-twelfth of one per cent of salary received for all men in detached and connectional service, this payment to entitle the men to receive one copy of the Minutes each. Additional copies to be purchased at 15 cents per copy.

All widows of preachers and retired preachers to receive copies free.

We recommend that the members of the Conference personally pledge the Secretary to secure the payment in full of the apportionment made for this year and send the same to the Treasurer of the Commission, H. M. Pingree, Golden, within thirty days of the close of the Conference.

We further recommend that the Commission be authorized to make an apportionment for the Minute Fund for next year, provided that the apportionment shall not exceed one-fourth of one per cent of the total salary, including house rent, and to report the amount apportioned to the District Superintendents and pastors not later than thirty days preceding the opening of the next session of the Conference.

O. C. DOMER, Secretary.

ILIFF SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Bishop Cushman and Brethren of the Colorado Annual Conference:

Greetings:

For the seventh time I bring you my report on the work of the Iliff School. In this entering paragraph I thank you one and all for generous evidences through these years of kindly treatment of a brother minister. Also I have appreciated your growing interest in the Iliff School as manifested in many ways, including increases in financial support. Your theological school founded by the great Bishop Warren and the splendid Iliff family, must ever have your love and protecting devotion. Hereby you hold it up to catch the additional and wider support of an awakened Methodism, awakened to the need of schools for the scholarly and spiritual training of ministers.

In my six previous reports the attempt has been made to give you accounts of our stewardship, not my stewardship, but the stewardship of Bishop, Cabinet, Trustees and Faculty devoted to a common task, for which my annual lot has been to act as reporter to you. Each report has stressed some item not contained in another, and therefore all, together, have covered most of the items striking you as relevant.

This seventh, latest and last report begs the indulgence of placing in your minds and records a short resume of what appears to me to be Iliff's outstanding strides since September 1, 1925.

First: On a very limited income, properties have been maintained, improvements thereof made, faculty salaries raised for every teacher in the amount of not less than $500.00, instruction kept gratis, and room rent held at the nominal fee of one dollar per week.

Second: The support of the Church at large has been increased from an annual contribution of $2,000 in 1925 to $7,000 in 1932. Nineteen hundred and thirty-one brought us $7,302, and 1930, $8,100. A liberal portion of this increase found its way into the good work of giving the deserved and somewhat delayed increase in teachers' salaries.

Third: General Endowment and Scholarship Fund endowments have made a modest gain, one that does not startle but does indicate a steady climb during these difficult financial times.

Fourth: Iliff is closing her fourth year upon a strictly graduate basis. See catalog pages 50, 51, 52, 53, 54 of April, 1932, for a sample of the academic standing of our student body. No theological school in America can boast of a more exacting academic entrance requirement than ours, namely, the college diploma.

Fifth: The increasing of the devotional spirit which brings into fashion a rich religious experience to make fruitful an exacting academic training of men carefully chosen from amongst the talented.

Sixth: The four-quarter system which keeps the school open during every season of the year.

Seventh: The staggering of the professors in that each gets eighteen weeks off duty each year, and not all at one time, so that the salary budget for 33 weeks extends to 44 weeks, and one teacher does not keep another from getting students for the offerings made where the enrollment in proportion to the number giving instruction is of necessity small.

Eighth: Confining the students to a limited number of courses each meeting four times per week. At present a student is limited to twelve hours or three majors in any one quarter.

Ninth: Growing fellowship within faculty and student body and a closer cooperation between the two.

Tenth: Growing appreciation on the part of the faculty and student body that extra-classroom experiences and supervision are quite as important as lecture content and teaching delivery.

Eleventh: Plowing under the hoary and unfair custom of granting a bachelor's degree at the end of three years of professional graduate work through the granting of a Master of Theology Degree at the end of three years and a Doctor of Theology Degree at the end of four years of well directed study.

These and other developments have come unforced and therefore quite naturally upon the splendid traditions fostered by Iliff from the beginning; have come through sensitive registering of some of the needs of this day and generation for equipping men to be good ministers of Jesus Christ to the glory of God the Father and the education, regeneration and edification of human beings and their enwombing, social medium.

Kindly keep up the local-conference-sustentation-one-per-cent of pastor's-cash-salary-support of school. In electing Trustees avoid as much as possible the interlocking directorate idea which was ordained in the beginning of modern times to give the powerful manipulation of the weaker through hidden wires of control. Encourage the Conference officials, as much as possible, to make the supply work of Colorado buckle down to the task of training ministers by giving Iliff students a chance to serve here while training for the wider fields beyond. And finally, brethren, work close enough to the school to keep it human, practical and spiritual. It will always maintain the proper academic standards. It invites your supplementing contacts. At least I think it does. We train for the ministry while in the ministry through fellowship with the ministry.

With cordial appreciation and a kind farewell, I am, in the submitting of this report, respectfully yours,

E. GUY CUTSHALL, President.

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

(Summary for Conference Minutes. For complete report see mimeographed copies furnished to all members present.)

A review of the year 1931-32 discloses the progress of the University in terms of the advances summarized here:

- a. The completion of the Mary Reed Library.
- b. The great growth of the Graduate School.
- c. The emphasis upon research and honors courses.
- d. The advance in the student welfare program.
- e. A constantly broadening scope of University contacts.
- f. The increasing influence of the Foundation for the Advancement of the Social Sciences.
- g. A vigorous and effective development of alumni activities.
- h. The affiliation with the Santa Fe Art School and the very successful first year of the School of Librarianship.
- i. The persistence of attendance—the year being second only to the year of 1930-31 in total enrollment.
- j. The complete centralization of business control and effective operation of the new accounting system.
- k. The discussion of the tax-free status of the University, and the disclosure of the immense economic contribution of the University in addition to the immeasurable cultural, intellectual, scientific and spiritual values distributed by it in the community and the commonwealth.

These events epitomize somewhat the story of the year's work. But the more vital question is to be found in the measure which the trustees of Colorado Seminary (the University of Denver) are attempting to apply to the institution given in charge to them and for whose management they are responsible. This measure is of larger mold than the course of a year can compute. It looks backward to the beginnings and to the days of the founders, and forward to the fruition of the eras to come. Let us all recognize that a University is to be measured first by its output—by its product. Wherever we turn to the world or to the nation, and in whatever field, we find graduates of the University of Denver exercising inspired and far-visioned leadership. In the State Department at Washington at the point of control of the policies of international relationships, and where the destiny of nations is made, stands a staunch and able graduate of this institution. In the field of letters the world has recognized a new model for the short story in the works and writings of another distinguished alumnus—a style so perfected and so artistic that the collegiate classrooms of the nation have pointed to it as the modern standard. At the head of one of the greatest of the modern big business corporations is another of our distinguished graduates. In whatever field or profession—law, business, letters, teaching, science, college presidency, theology, exploration, whether in the commonwealth of Colorado, the nation, or the world—distinguished leaders educated and inspired by the University of Denver are conferring the boon of their high-minded devotion and creative thinking upon modern civilization as it moves toward the solution of its problems.

Moreover, by its present-day policies shall the University be judged. Does it provide in its organization, its research, its methods of instruction, for the complete and effective education of a group of inspired and creative leaders? Such provision is to be sought in at least four major aspects:

The provision for health conservation and advancement.

Curricula making for a broad culture and a rich inner life of its students; and an appreciation of the rich inheritance for present and past values of civilization.

A system of organized instruction and research, making for a mastery of the tools of modern civilization and application of these tools and procedures in meeting the problems confronting modern society.

The achievement of high-minded character and devotion to the spiritual ideals of Christian civilization by a conditioning and controlling of student life and collegiate instruction.

The University is seeking to make effective a full program in attaining each of these standards. Its health and physical education provisions, and universal participation in both interscholastic and intramural athletics; its great Liberal Arts and Graduate Courses; its professional and scientific schools and departments with highly developed research; its emphasis upon social problems and religious life, all are active, vigorous and highly organized agencies moving toward the fulfillment of the above measures.

Finally, the University is to be judged by the class of students it draws and the intellectual, cultural and spiritual level of its faculty. The highest and most vigorous tests indicate that both students and faculty of our University are of unusual rank. Furthermore, the present attitude of the trustees actively supports a continued selectiveness of the student body and salary level for instructional staff which will hold and attract the ablest.

The administration of the University courts the most rigorous application of these standards as an acid test to its work, its policies, its organization. We ask the Conference and the friends of the institution to hold us in mind and to judge us by considering always our product, our present-day policies, and the quality of our faculty and student body.

F. M. HUNTER, Chancellor.

ADMINISTRATION OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I. Program of 1931-1932

In the fall of 1931 the Committee projected a program for the current Conference year as follows: (1) Visitation, by the Director, of local church schools for counsel; (2) One or more coaching conferences for pastors desiring to qualify for special leadership in the training of teachers; (3) Correlation of the supervisory work of the Committee with the work of Colorado Council of Religious Education.

II. Resume of Work Done

1. Dr. Ira A. Morton was engaged to serve as Director of Religious Education, with the understanding that he was to be employed in this work from Friday noon to Monday evening of each week. He has visited 80 church schools and held advisory conferences with the pastors and workers of the same. In addition, he has had advisory conferences and correspondence with pastors of 21 other churches.

2. The Director participated in the District Conference of Colorado Springs-Pueblo District and in Epworth League rallies at Fowler and Kit Carson.

3. Through the Director, the Committee has endeavored to acquaint pastors and church school leaders of the Conference with the special types of leaders' materials as they were produced from time to time.

4. A coaching conference for pastors on religious education is being promoted in connection with the Institute at Pine Crest, June 18 to 24.

5. In the fall of 1931, the Committee agreed to contribute to Colorado Council of Religious Education a definite sum each month as subsidy of promotional and leadership training work done by the Council in community projects involving Methodist Episcopal Church schools. This was done, and the Committee hereby recognizes the value of the Council's work in these respects.

6. Receipts of money by the Committee have come from three sources: (1) The Rally Day offerings totaled $687.66. (2) Receipts from the five-cents-per-member assessment amounted to $293.74. (3) Receipts from sale of supplies amounted to $52.66. The Committee has kept expenditures within the income only by terminating the work of the Director on March 7th. The Committee regrets that, on account of this necessity, many churches within the Conference have been denied the services of the Director.

III. Status of Religious Education in the Conference

On the basis of observations made by the Director, and other information, the Committee is convinced that:

First, the Sunday School is one of the most firmly established features of the local church. It claims and receives a greater loyalty than any other feature. Its significance is felt most by the people as: (1) Providing a place and program for children and youth on Sundays; (2) Teaching Christian ideals; (3) Serving as an agency for recruiting persons into membership in the Church.

Second, the Sunday School, with few exceptions, is not yet a school of religion.

(1) The aim—insofar as leaders are conscious of aim—still gives authorized lesson materials too large a place while obscuring the true aims, viz., religious experience and character in pupils.

(2) Trained leadership is a theory accepted by pastors, but largely ignored by laymen, and only slightly realized in practice.

(3) The program is often meagre and, in most cases, lopsided, especially in respect to churchmanship and service, which receive too little attention. It also lacks unity in many cases, especially where Epworth League and Sunday School and Missionary Societies for children are still independent organizations.

(4) In procedure, custom is the rule in teaching method as well as in administration. This should give way to insight and practical skills.

Third, the time element in religious education needs more thoughtful consideration throughout the Conference. The one-hour Sunday session, with an additional hour on Sunday evening for young people, represents the time allotment for religious education in the typical local church. Both in longer Sunday sessions, in vacation schools and in week-day curricula the church schools of Colorado Conference have not yet measured up to their full opportunity.

Fourth, standards of leadership excellence are still too low in a large percentage of church schools. We note with satisfaction, however, the high morals of a considerable number of church school staffs.

Fifth, financial support of religious education in local churches of the Conference is limited to free-will offerings of those present at the Sunday School. The idea of making religious education needs a coordinate claim in the local church budget has taken root in but very few churches. Consequently, equipment, materials and leadership are maintained on too low standards in view of the demand made upon the church school.

Sixth, with almost negligible exception, pastors show cooperative interest in the educational method, and in increasing numbers are placing heavy reliance upon it.

IV. Recommendations

We recommend:

(1) That the work of the Committee on Administration of Religious Education be continued and strengthened during the coming Conference year.

(2) That pastors and churches be urged to make a Rally Day offering early in the fall and send the offering to the Board of Education in Chicago.

(3) That the churches be urged to send to the Committee Treasurer, Dr. A. F. Ragatz, an amount equal to five cents per member on the basis of average church school attendance. This is to supplement the Rally Day offerings in support of the Committee's work in the Conference.

(4) That Sunday, October 2nd, be observed throughout the Conference as Rally Day; and that your Committee be authorized to prepare a suitable program for use on that day in a service of recognition of leaders of children and youth in the local churches.

(5) That the Conference authorize the reappointment of Dr. Ira A. Morton as Conference Director of Religious Education.

Respectfully submitted,

THE COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATION OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

TRUSTEES OF WESLEY FOUNDATION OF COLORADO

The field of Wesley Foundation of Colorado is found upon the campus of five state colleges that have a combined enrollment of more than seven thousand students. Of these sixteen hundred register a preference for the Methodist Church. That is to say, one student in every five attending one of these state colleges comes from a Methodist home. During the past year, through the inspiration and leadership of the Wesley Foundation, nearly 800 students have been drawn into the active program of the church every week throughout the academic year and the church has made a significant contact with four out of every five students in the colleges who express a Methodist preference.

The program of Wesley Foundation is as varied as are the interests and demands of a student's life. Forum classes in the Sunday School enlist practically three hundred students in regular attendance. The fellowship and inspiration of the Epworth League brings a somewhat larger number together each Sunday evening. The morning congregations of the various Wesley Foundation Churches find over 400 students regularly worshipping in the church. Glee clubs, orchestras, dramatic clubs, gospel teams, week night discussion groups, are in operation under capable leadership. From 250 to 500 students share in well planned social activities every month. An increasing number of students are receiving valuable practical training and rendering splendid service teaching in the Sunday School, singing in the choir, leading boys' and girls' clubs and similar forms of activity in the college churches. Day by day throughout the week the Wesley Foundation pastor is kept busy making personal contacts, dealing with the practical problems that arise in a student's life, and keeping vital the student's consciousness that the church cares and that the church can help.

Letters are constantly coming back to pastors and student pastors which indicate how graduates of these state colleges who have been drawn into the program of the Wesley Foundation are finding places of responsibility and service in the local church. They are organizing and directing Epworth Leagues. They are teaching in the Sunday Schools. They are helping to develop new and more wholesome forms of recreation. They are taking their places on the Official Boards of churches. No investment which the church is making comes so immediately and directly back in the form of trained and reliable leadership and service as does our investment in Wesley Foundation.

Last September the shortage of funds available for Wesley Foundation in Colorado made it necessary to reduce our staff. The church at Greeley has been aided this past year in employing a senior student as a part-time leader responsible for organizing and directing the program of the Foundation. The pastor has also received assistance from several of the members of the faculty who have acted as teachers in the College Forum Class. The work of the Wesley Foundation at Golden and at Gunnison has been carried forward by the local churches without any financial aid from the Conference corporation. At Boulder and at Fort Collins full-time Wesley Foundation pastors have been maintained and they have just completed the most successful year in the history of the Wesley Foundation of Colorado. At Fort Collins Wesley Foundation cooperated with other churches in the community in organizing a School of Religion which is offering credit courses in Bible study. The work has met the approval of the faculty and will be continued.

For some years past the Colorado Annual Conference has been approving a Wesley Foundation collection amounting to ten cents per member for the churches of the Conference. We ask that this asking be continued this year.

C. E. SCHOFIELD, Secretary.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE COLORADO CONFERENCE

The reports of the President of the Iliff School of Theology, the Chancellor of the University of Denver, the Trustees of the Wesley Foundation, the Administrative Committee on Religious Education in the Local Church, have shown the great educational program and opportunity of this Conference.

Each of these projects are made, by the Discipline of the Church, the care and responsibility of your Conference Board of Education and the General Board of Education of the Church. We therefore complete our report to you by these resolutions which we ask the Conference to adopt.

The necessity of an adequately trained, competent ministry increases with the complexity and intricacy of modern society. The present hour literally demands a trained ministry. We recognize the fine quality of the teaching at Iliff School of Theology in meeting the critical needs of the hour. We therefore urge the World Service Commission and the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church to make the largest possible appropriation for the support of Iliff School and that the Conference Board of Education be instructed to make the strongest representations to the World Service Commission and the Board for this support. We urge that every member of the Conference do his utmost to secure the Conference asking for the School.

With equal urgency the claim of the University of Denver comes before us as an opportunity to meet the critical demands of the present day. Not only does a trained ministry presuppose the University, without which the Theological School cannot function, but also there appears the necessity for an informed laity and a trained local leadership for our churches. To this end the University works and no more necessary and significant work is being done than in the University of Denver. We therefore urge the World Service Commission and the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church to continue its grant in aid to the University of Denver in what amount can be apportioned and instruct the Conference Board of Education to make such representations to the World Service Commission and to the Board.

We urge that the members of the Conference give their constant support to the University in urging selected members of their high school graduates to attend the University, and that the pastors make the fullest use of the scholarships made available by the University.

The Wesley Foundation does its part in holding the youth of the state colleges to the service of the Church. We urge the World Service Commission and the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church through the Wesley Foundation to give the utmost consideration to the Colorado Conference Wesley Foundation and instruct the Conference Board of Education to make such representations to the World Service Commission and to the Board.

We urge the members of the Conference to use their utmost endeavor to secure the Conference asking for Wesley Foundation.

In conformity with the preceding sections of this report, it follows that there is no more important work in the educational program than this work of the promotion of the educational program in the local churches.

Last year we necessarily curtailed this work from that of a full-time Director of Religious Education to part-time work. The falling off of Rally Day receipts made this the only course possible. We were very fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Morton, head of the Department of Religious Education at Iliff, to carry on during the week-ends. This has meant part-time services, but has also continued the very finest leadership for this work in the churches. We must express appreciation of the very fine work that Dr. Morton has done, and of his great diligence and his unflagging zeal in carrying on the program this year.

The World Service Commission and the Board of Education, through General Conference legislation, is now permitted to give us designated gifts for this work in addition to the Rally Day offering. Therefore we urge the World Service Commission and the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church to give every consideration to this work and instruct the Colorado Conference Board of Education to make such representation to the Commission and the Board.

We urge the pastors to carry out Rally Day program voted Saturday. If we wish to strengthen and enlarge this very vital program, additional gifts may be secured in World Service offerings designated to this project. This we urge and also urge that every member of the Conference do his utmost to secure the Conference asking for this project.

E. C. WRIGHT, Chairman.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT

The Board of Education of the Colorado Conference presents the following resolution for adoption by the Conference in annual session:

The reward of success in a big task is a call to a bigger task. In this we rejoice. But the price we pay for the development of a commanding leadership is the loss of the leadership to the larger task. Seven years ago Dr. Elmer Guy Cutshall became the President of the Iliff School of Theology. He brought to his task the resources of an inexhaustible energy, an erudite culture, a versatility of gifts and a devotion to a high interpretation of the educational ideal. He has raised the standards of the Iliff School of Theology with respect to both scholarship and instruction. He has secured church-wide recognition of the school. He has attracted students of high caliber and in large number. He has cultivated many warm friends for the institution, whose support will abide. He has given most generously of his time and ability within the Conference, even to the smallest churches, and has established himself in the high esteem and sincere affection of his brother ministers. We regret his departure. We shall miss the valuable resources of his counsel and the cordial personal relationships which have existed during the years of his sojourn among us. We bespeak for him continued success and an ever-widening field of distinguished service as the Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University. Our heartiest expression of good wishes go with him and his family.

ANNUAL REPORT, COLORADO CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND RELIEF

A balanced financial statement of the work of this Board cannot be given at this time, owing to the sudden passing away of R. E. Bird, the Treasurer of the Board. It should be stated, however, that his books were examined by our Auditing Committee on June 1 and found to be correct and all money accounted for, as they will show by their signed report. At the end of the Conference year his balance exactly agreed with mine.

Without taking into account the balance with which he began the year, his report for the nine months beginning Sept. 1 and ending May 31, will be substantially as follows:

Cash Receipts	Cash Expenditures
Balance on hand Sept. 1....	Paid into the Loan Fund...$7,500.00
Received from ministers....$5,833.05	Paid salary of Exec. Sec'y... 1,950.00
Received from laymen..... 3,606.13	Paid incidental expense 162.43
$9,439.18	Balance on hand..... 49.70
	$9,662.13

The above does not take into consideration any money taken in at this Conference session, which amounts to about $700.00. This will go over and be included in next year's report, as the money paid in at last Conference goes into this year's report.

Collections on unpaid pledges from laymen have been exceedingly slow this year. Wherever the preachers have opened the way I have made personal visits to the charges and have solicited funds in payment of pledges. The results have not, however, justified the additional expense for travel and hotel bills. Experience has proved that, wherever the laymen could pay they responded about as well to a written statement as to a personal call. I have refrained from putting severe pressure on anyone owing to the struggle most of our churches have had to maintain themselves. In view of these things we feel that the collection of something over an average of $1,000.00 per month is a fair showing for the nine months. Let it be kept in mind, however, that I am anxious to visit your charges and see the people personally. I do not wish to do this unless you wish me to come, and I have no way of knowing whether or not you wish me to come unless you tell me. We still have between forty and fifty thousand dollars worth of unpaid pledges of laymen and about ten thousand dollars worth of unpaid pledges from ministers. This year, for the first time, the preachers have done better than the laymen. I feel that this year, which is the fourth year of the pledge-paying period as outlined in our campaign plans of 1928, should see as much of the balance paid on the unpaid pledges of the laymen as possible. I fear that pledges allowed to run longer than that would be exceedingly difficult to collect. Therefore I urge that this year you allow me to come and that you give me all the help possible to see your people who are still in arrears. Do not forget your action taken in the Conference of 1928, that this should be the principal financial project of the Conference for the quadrennium and that the payments were to continue through a period of five years. This applies to both ministers and laymen. It has now been a little more than three years since the first pledges were taken in that campaign, and that leaves us two years yet to continue it and complete it.

From the report of the Preachers' Aid Society you have already seen that the net increase in the Conference Fund during the past nine months has been a little over $10,000.00. Our assets now total $230,000.00. We need to keep clearly in mind that the objective is a grand total of $500,000.00. This will be needed in order that the Conference may comply with the laws of the church and merge into the new pension plan.

Brethren, it ought not to be necessary to say to you that the Colorado Conference cannot have a reserve fund of $500,000.00 unless you give a large part of it yourselves. There is no working pension plan in the government service or the industrial world that is not contributory. All which have ever tried to be anything else are now on the rocks. Only a contributory pension plan will or can maintain itself for any length of time. I cannot make it too emphatic that I am more and more impressed that every man in the Conference ought to pay his quota into this fund. You ought to do it because you need the protection that these payments will afford you, but more than that, you ought to do it because the Conference needs to protect itself from the man who does not pay. There are needy years ahead. Bank failures and bad investments strip you of your savings. Every man of you will eventually come to the Conference for help. The peculiar ties of brotherhood under which we carry on our work make it imperative that when the needy days arrive, the necessary help shall be forthcoming. The old fable of the ant and the grasshopper repeats itself, and the man who has saved must give to the man who hasn't. It is urgent that these reserves be built now. The old system is surely moving toward extinction. The law of the church allows one per cent of the average salary of the effective men of the Conference multiplied by the number of years a man served, as his allowance for the ensuing four years. In our Conference this legal rate has been $24.00 during the last four years. I shall be surprised if, when it is estimated on the basis of actual salary payments, this year the rate will be more than $16.00 per year. We never now pay the full amount of the legal rate. Failure on the part of the churches to pro rate and a prevailing spirit of disloyalty on the part of many official boards toward all overhead charges for the maintaining of the Methodist system and the paying of the ministerial claims has doomed the old plan of 1908 to a swift and certain death. What is the only answer? It is this: Build the reserve fund to where we can place upon the central office of the Pension Board the responsibility of caring for our aged and necessitous people. Build the Reserve Fund!

Our Board is sadly bereft with the death, a few days ago, of our Board Treasurer, R. E. Bird. It will be necessary, in the voting for new members, to not only elect two for the class of 1935, but to fill the vacancy in the class of 1933 made by his death. The Secretary now places in nomination for that position, D. S. Jones. If this is not in order as a part of this report, the nomination will be made later.

The Board contemplates no change in plan for the coming Conference year. The rate of ministerial assessments for the reserve fund will be the same as last year. I will send blanks for your statements and pledges early in the year. Let me beg of you, brethren, to fill them out and return them at once. If adjustments are made necessary by a drop in salaries or by failure to pay, adjustments can easily be made at the end of the year. Let us give this splendid program looking toward our own future welfare our unreserved cooperation. Let us render to the Church of Jesus Christ a flawless ministry unshadowed by fear or future want for our loved ones or ourselves.

E. N. EDGERTON, Secretary.

A wholesome and profitable half hour could be spent by every member of the Conference by taking the 1931 Year Book and comparing, item by item, the figures of the report just rendered with the corresponding figures as they stood nine months ago. As preferred beneficiaries of these funds it is the duty of every man to do it. You would notice, first, that the increase in the total assets of the Preachers' Aid Society for the nine months beginning Sept. 1, 1931, is almost exactly $10,000.00. In fact, it is about $8.00 over that. We are confident that few business organizations, capitalized at $220,000.00, under the present business stagnation, can match that. You would notice, too, that in addition to adding $10,000.00 to our working capital, we have paid three classes of beneficiaries of the various funds $5,582.28. Notice, also, that the total cost of administration under the item of "salary and incidental expense" is $993.79. Then glance at the next to the last item in the "Cash Receipts" column and you will observe that the Secretary has collected in commissions on new loans, extensions of old loans and fire insurance policies, $1,061.77. This is $68.00 more than the cost of administration. Notice next that the "Interest received" item is almost exactly $1,000.00 per month. This is $377.77 more than was received for the corresponding period last year. The net increase in the Conference Fund, on which we are now working, is $9,586.26, which is well over an average of $1,000.00 per month. We are not happy that the "overdue interest" item, $1,267.30, is an increase of $649.68 over last year. This represents interest deficits owing us by nine different people ranging in amount from a few dollars to as much as $180.00. We do not wish to take property for defaulted interest, and will not do so except in extreme cases and as a last resort. We have had the deed to one property handed to us by the owner. This is now rented advantageously and is productive property. It will pay as well rented—probably better—than it did while the owner kept up the interest. We shall not lose on it. But we will not take property if it can possibly be avoided. However, if taxes are left unpaid and unpaid interest accumulates beyond the danger point, we shall not hesitate to foreclose mortgages. We feel that we are morally right in proceeding on the theory that no owner of property who owes us is in any greater need than the claimants whose money they are using and who depend on that money for the meager income that keeps them from a miserable poverty. But nine debtors in default on a loan list of seventy-two is not a large proportion. Other men in the same business tell me this is a wonderfully favorable showing. It should be remembered, too, that two of these are farm loans that have been given to the Society, which represent no cash outlay on our part. On one of these farms we have had to pay the taxes in order to avoid tax sale. The coming fall will bring some difficulty in that direction in a further outlay for taxes on property carrying defaulted interest, but the assets continue to grow, net income increases and all dividends are paid on time and will continue to be paid on time, with no appreciable losses of income or principal as time passes.

Last year we paid beneficiaries of the Jubilee Fund at the rate of \$5.60 per year of membership in that fund. We paid beneficiaries of the Patrons Fund $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on their cash investment, and we paid annuitants on the new Conference Fund 7 per cent on their cash investment. While we have had a high mortality rate among our claimants this year, it happens that it has not greatly reduced the amount of the claims on our funds, as those who passed away were none of them heavy claimants. The rate for the new year, so far as we can now see, will be, therefore, the same as last year, with the exception of the Patrons Fund. The rate will be set by the next meeting of the Board of Managers, but the present indication is that the rate to Patrons Fund beneficiaries will be increased to 8 per cent for the coming Conference year. That will be the recommendation of the Secretary. Let me ask one very personal question. No audible answer need be given. How many investments have you now which are increasing their dividends during these hard times? Not only that, but how many investments have you that are paying dividends at all? Why not decide now to loyally support the business that is able to do this for you when so many others can and will do nothing? Banks are not a safe place for reserve funds. A list of the bank failures in which our preachers have lost money during the last nine months would be appalling. If the amounts tied up in these bank failures were now in our hands, they would not only be liquid, but the income would be such as to make immediate liquidity undesirable. They would be the best asset you could have in view of approaching old age and the poverty and near poverty which it inevitably brings.

Brethren, let me plead with you to help build this Conference reserve. I do it, not only for your own sake, but because this is the only protection the Conference has from you. As a Methodist preacher you can come to the Conference, or your dependent relatives may do so, and demand that substantial help be given. How can we give you and them that help in the critical hour of their need if you do not yourself lay the groundwork for it in the days of your earning power? If you will not do it to help yourself, do it to protect us from you, for we have no other protection.

Respectfully submitted,

E. N. EDGERTON, Executive Secretary.

THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

This is a period of transition. The world has always known such periods, and the race has marked progress because of them. Fear not that the church and the whole social order are going to the bow-wows because we have something of the dust of the present change in our eyes.

Tomorrow we shall attain the goal for which we long have striven—the goal that makes of earth a heaven.

The Church of our Lord cannot be static. It was organized and developed for a purpose, and that purpose, we believe, is to give direction to the stream of human history, and to give a richer content to the meaning of life.

We believe the mission of the church is to hearten and encourage those who have become bewildered in the confusion of the changing order, and to bring to them a dynamic sufficiently potent to save them from some tragedy and to give to their lives a commanding objective.

There are some things which we will not outgrow. While the world stands we may safely continue to preach the doctrine of love, of sympathy, and of human helpfulness, exemplifying our preaching in our lives. Hungry hearted, discouraged and incredulous people will believe in the living Christ when they see that Christ living in you and me.

We may call the church to witness the new signs of vitality and virility, in the youth movements of today.

That the Church may be materially furnished for its commanding task in leavening the world with righteousness, we believe that tithing and stewardship must come to a new birth with a renewed emphasis on the fact of our trusteeship.

In spite of all the lethargy and indifference—we are not discouraged, nor are we pessimistic as to the final outcome—"Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and as certainly as the eternal years of God are hers, so certainly will God bring to its enthronement truth of the Gospel as lived and taught by the Man of the Ages. Christianity today, and Protestantism in particular, is making an impact on the world out of all proportion to the ratio it sustains to the entire population.

Christian ethics are coloring the thinking and practices of peoples everywhere. Let the Church continue to plant its leaven in the hearts and minds of men until the whole lump of mammon and greed has been leavened, and the heavenly Kingdom for which we pray has found its consummation on earth!

ROLLIN H. AYRES, Chairman.

OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY

It is not only a divine command to keep one day in seven a Holy Day but it is in accord with all the laws of life. Two dangers appear to threaten us. The loss of the evening worship service and turning the day into a national holiday. We believe the services of worship ought to be persistently maintained, and the people urged to "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

L. W. COFFMAN, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION AND PUBLIC MORALS

Any careful analysis of the present prohibition situation must reveal two important related facts:

First—There is and has been a widespread neglect of emphasis upon the educational processes involved in any permanent solution of the problem of alcoholic beverages. This has endangered the success of the entire movement toward national control of this evil.

Second—We have persisted in underestimating the effectiveness of the propaganda emanating from the camp of the proponents of the liquor traffic.

We place too much confidence in law as the most potent remedy for our ills, and too little emphasis upon an educational approach which will enlighten the mind relative to the real issues involved, develop a conscience against the evil we fight, and train the will toward the final and complete overthrow of the powerfully entrenched enemy.

We, therefore, acknowledging our serious mistake, call upon all pastors of the Colorado Conference to do their utmost to correct this common fault by—

First—Introducing and carrying forward in each charge an intensive, extensive and thoroughly adequate program of education which will deal intelligently with every phase of the problem as it confronts us today. This should be done through the Church School, Epworth Leagues, and where necessary, in specially arranged classes for different age groups. The best texts, information and leadership should be secured.

Second—More frequent messages from our pulpits which will undertake accurately to inform and courageously to rally our people to the attack upon the evil from every possible angle.

We further urge that we definitely motivate our program in an unqualified endorsement of the Eighteenth Amendment as the best method yet discovered for national control of the liquor traffic, and pledge united opposition to all movements for its repeal.

A. E. TUCK, Chairman.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

"The standards of Jesus must be applied to all the institutions of civilization." In this statement from the recent Episcopal Address we heartily concur; and we believe that the present hour calls imperatively for a social vision and a social program.

In her work of proclaiming the Gospel, the Church should call men to a genuine repentance for social as well as for individual sins, and enlist them in the task of building a genuinely Christian social and economic order. She should inspire, encourage and assist those who are struggling against the evils we condemn as well as those seeking to establish the ideals we cherish. Especially in the present acute situation her influence and her resources should be used to relieve suffering in ways that shall conserve self-respect and the value of human personality.

We recognize two major objectives in the social program of the church:

I. The education of the church to the fullest implications of the teachings of Jesus. To the attainment of this objective we recommend:

a. That every Minister in this Conference endeavor to introduce into the curriculum of classes for young people and adults, either in the Church School or in mid-week classes, courses dealing definitely with social and economic problems, and that the Colorado Annual Conference appeal to the editors of our Church School literature to include more material bearing upon social and economic problems in the curriculum of the Church School.

b. That the Ministers of this Conference keep in mind, in their year-round preaching program, the aim to create a socially effective church.

c. That we urge all the Ministers of this Conference to become members of the Methodist Federation for Social Service and of the Social Service Commission of the Colorado Annual Conference.

d. That the Conference Commission on Social Service be instructed to set up a mid-year meeting during the fall or winter months, to which both ministers and laymen shall be invited, for the discussion of the social message and program of the church, and to devise plans for distributing to members of the Conference information relative to teaching and preaching materials.

II. A second objective must be to forward such a reconstruction of our present economic and industrial order as shall result in a society that exalts the creation and conservation of human values, and service to society, above the acquisition of material wealth, substitutes the method of cooperation for that of competition and strife, provides economic security and opportunity for the fullest possible enrichment of personal and social life for all its citizens, holds the natural resources and instruments of production under the fullest possible democratic control, and the capital surplus created by the economic system, not for individual possession and enjoyment, but as a social trust. Toward the attainment of this objective we recommend:

a. Unflinching adherence to the historic opposition of our church to alcoholic beverages whether in personal use or in legalized traffic. We are persuaded that one of the major purposes impelling those who are agitating for the repeal of the prohibition laws is to turn the attention of the dissatisfied masses, and of socially-minded citizens, from social and economic injustice to a renewal of the struggle over prohibition legislation, and to shift the burden of the support of government from income taxes that rest most heavily upon the rich, to excise taxes which lay these burdens upon the poor. We are persuaded that the liquor traffic is a menace both to religion and to citizenship and that to reestablish the legalized manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages in any form would aggravate the present evils of unemployment and economic insecurity. We therefore call upon our people to oppose every measure that looks toward the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

b. Condemnation as unchristian, economically wasteful, and politically futile, of the war system, especially as it expresses itself in military training in high schools and colleges, disproportionate taxation for armaments, and the creation of international suspicion and ill will. Our government should lead the way in consistent and complete adherence to the Kellogg Pact, in the promotion of international cooperation through the limitation of armaments, adherence to the World Court and the League of Nations, and a continuance of the policy of seeking the solution of international problems through international conferences.

c. Approval of such proposals as old age pensions, unemployment insurance, maternity, sickness and accident insurance.

d. Support of cooperative organization for production and marketing, and faithful maintenance of the right of labor to organize and to deal collectively through representatives of their own choosing.

Respectfully submitted,

L. B. LONGACRE, Chairman.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The work of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society commends itself to the attention of the whole church by the persistent, insistent Educational Program, methods of raising funds and the extensive operations in Foreign Mission Fields.

Where two or more women can be secured to study and organize an auxiliary, we recommend that it be done.

F. E. EDWARDS, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The unusual manner in which the Woman's Home Missionary Society raises funds and supplies for schools, homes, and assists pastors' families in difficult fields, deserves our hearty commendation.

We recognize the missionary educational advantages of the societies in our respective charges. We urge that sympathetic support be given the Society by all our pastors and people.

A. M. CARPENTER, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

We, your Committee, recommend:

First—The organization and promotion of an Epworth League Chapter in every church, and district organizations and subdistrict organizations when possible. . . .

Second—That the delegate of our institutes—Pine Crest and Grand Mesa—be elected from the group, who will carry the work and inspiration of the institutes back of their chapters. We whole-heartedly support the institute program and managements.

Third—That those who are responsible for editing the devotional copy used by our leagues, endeavor to present material with a stronger human interest touch, with deeper spiritual purpose, and also to be more explicit and generous with amount of material offered.

Fourth—That Epworth Leagues be correlated with the Sunday Schools in our religious educational programs, and organizing in every church Junior and Intermediate Leagues.

J. JOHN R. CREAMER, Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS

The Colorado Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been royally entertained at its seventieth session by the pastor and people of Grace Church. Rev. E. M. Wahlberg, Conference host, has thoughtfully anticipated every need of the Conference. The splendid facilities of the church, the unfailing courtesy of the pastor and his assistants and the generous hospitality of the members of the congregation have made it a delightful and memorable experience to meet in Grace Church.

Our thanks are due to all who have contributed to the program. We have particularly enjoyed the music, furnished by Bernard Vessy and the Glee Club of First Church, Colorado Springs, by the Nurses' Glee Club of Beth-El Hospital, and by the Grace Church and Grant Avenue choirs. The addresses of Bishop Hughes, Bishop Cushman, Dr. Cutshall, Dr. Page, Dr. Auman and Dr. Richardson were full of stimulus, inspiration and challenge.

We greatly appreciate the services of Miss Claire Barnes, Miss Florence Kinney and Miss Ruth Condit for their secretarial and stenographic assistance, the Woman's Department of Grace Church for the medals which they provided, the press, the city police, the Y. M. C. A., the Barnes Commercial School and all others who have contributed to the comfort and convenience of the Conference.

The Denver Area has, for the last twelve years, rejoiced in the presidency of Bishop Charles L. Mead. During these three quadrenniums Bishop Mead has commanded the respect of the entire Rocky Mountain region and has endeared himself to every Methodist in the Area. He has been indefatigable in the exercise of his episcopal duties. He has given himself without stint to the service of the churches. His preaching has set high standards for every Methodist preacher, and his administration has placed Methodism in a position of commanding influence throughout the Area. He has been more than a bishop of the churches. He has been the brother and comrade of every Methodist minister in the area. With all our hearts we bid Bishop and Mrs. Mead Godspeed.

As we bid farewell to one administrative leader, we welcome to the Area his successor. We rejoice that the General Conference has assigned Bishop Ralph S. Cushman to the presidency of the Denver Area for this quadrennium. We deeply appreciate the spirit in which he has entered into his presidency of this Conference. His morning devotional addresses have lifted our deliberations to high spiritual altitudes. It is an honor and a privilege as well as a delight to follow such a leader. We pledge to him our loyalty and cooperation. We are happy to extend to Bishop Cushman and his family a hearty welcome to the Denver Area.

C. E. SCHOFIELD, Chairman.

(c) SPECIAL COMMITTEESDATE OF CONFERENCE REPORTS

Owing to the increasing frequency of belated and defective reports to the Statistician and Treasurer, these officers and their staffs are meeting with growing difficulties in collecting, preparing and presenting their reports to the Conference.

Because they are forced to prepare their reports during the Conference session, they are deprived of the privilege of attending many of the business sessions and programs of the Conference. In view of these facts it is becoming more and more difficult to secure and retain experienced assistants.

Due to the inability of the Statistician and Treasurer to release their reports to the printer promptly, the Secretary is hampered and delayed in the publication of the Minutes. Much of this delay grows out of the fact of belated vouchers and short checks.

The Church and the Conference Benevolent Boards are in turn handicapped in their work by late remittances.

A complete and final report early in the Conference session would be of material assistance to the Conference Boards in the consideration of their interests and to the Bishop and the Cabinet in making the appointments.

In the light of this condition your Committee has corresponded with, or secured information about, the following Conferences in regard to their practice in handling Conference reports: Central New York, Central Pennsylvania, Kansas, Maine, Nebraska, New England, New York East, Philadelphia, Rock River.

After considering carefully their statements and methods, we make the following recommendations:

1. (a) That the Colorado Annual Conference request the Board of Bishops to fix the date of the Annual Session of the Colorado Conference to begin on the first Wednesday following the first Sunday after the fifteenth day of June, and

(b) That the Conference year shall close on the fifteenth day of June, and

(c) That a Statistical Session be held on the first day of the Conference, at which time each pastor shall present his report, and if any pastor shall be unable to attend this session, he shall mail his report to the seat of the Conference in time for this session.

2. That the practice of delaying and waiting for vouchers until the opening of Conference be discontinued, and that instead all pastors and supplies of charges refrain from sending money and securing vouchers therefor after May 31, and that all Boards and officers issuing vouchers mail final vouchers on or before June 1; all contributions received between June 1 and June 15 to be reported as cash.

3. That the advice against the use of personal checks to the Treasurer be made a rule in this Conference.

(Signed)

E. L. CHIESA, Chairman.

PLAN OF CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

We recommend:

1. That the Colorado Annual Conference establish a permanent Commission on Conference Entertainment, consisting of the Bishop, District Superintendents, Secretary and Fare Equalizer, and four ministers elected by the Conference, plus the pastor of the church entertaining the Conference, after the church has been determined by the Commission.

2. This Commission shall determine the location of the sessions of the Conference, and shall administer any funds which may be raised by the Conference for Conference entertainment.

3. The Fare Equalizer shall add 15 per cent to the total travel expense of the Conference at each session of the Conference and shall equalize the total among the members of the Conference. This added 15 per cent shall be at the disposal of the Commission on Conference Entertainment, which shall be authorized to make such appropriations as the funds on hand will warrant and in their judgment would be appropriate to the entertaining church for costs of program talent, and for such other items relating to the entertainment of the Conference as the Commission shall consider justified.

4. The Commission shall investigate the practicability of some other basis of estimating travel costs other than railroad fares, and also the practicability of equalizing travel and conference expenses upon the basis of ministerial support received, and report their recommendations to the next session of the Conference.

5. The Commission shall consider the effects upon our whole plan of Conference entertainment of the admission of laymen to the annual Conference, and report their recommendations to the next session of the Conference.

6. The District Superintendents shall be requested to call to the attention of the quarterly Conferences in the charges on their districts the matter of the cost to the ministers and lay delegates of attendance at the sessions of the Annual Conference and invite their cooperation in working out an equitable plan for meeting this expense.

C. E. SCHOFIELD, Secretary.

SUSTENTATION FUND

The Committee respectfully recommends to the Colorado Annual Conference:

1. That the report of the Treasurer of the Sustentation Fund be printed in the Minutes of the Conference, and that the amounts contributed for the Sustentation Fund be included in the report of the Treasurer of the Conference.

2. That the Colorado Annual Conference constitute a permanent Sustentation Fund Commission to consist of the Bishop, District Superintendents, and one minister elected by the ministers of each District in the Conference, with the understanding that the men elected need not be resident within the District which they are elected to represent.

3. That the Sustentation Fund Commission be authorized to elect from their own number a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer; to receive contributions from men who are probationers or full members of the Conference; and make appropriations upon the recommendation of the District Superintendents, to the relief of men who are probationers or full members of the Conference.

4. That all probationers and full members of the Colorado Annual Conference, including men in detached service, be invited to share in contributing to the Sustentation Fund upon the following suggested basis:

Those receiving \$1,200 to \$1,799 cash salary, including missionary maintenance, at the rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent;

Those receiving $1,800 to $2,599 cash salary, at the rate of 1 per cent;

Those receiving \$2,600 and over cash salary, at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

It is to be understood that this asking is not an assessment, but is an expression of brotherhood on the part of the members of the Conference who thus give concrete expression of their desire to "bear one another's burdens."

5. That the Sustentation Fund Commission be instructed to make a careful study of the General Conference legislation relating to the problem of adequate and equitable adjustment of ministerial support, together with plans and policies that are in force in other conferences, and report to the next session of the Conference recommendations for:

(a) A minimum standard for ministerial qualifications;

(b) A minimum standard for charges asking for pastoral leadership;

(c) A minimum standard for ministerial support;

(d) Methods by which this minimum standard for ministerial support may be secured.

CHAS. SCHOFIELD, Secretary.

VII. Memoirs

ROBERT E. BIRD

Robert E. Bird, son of Stephen and Ann Bird, was born in Canada, March 10, 1863, and died at Denver, Colorado, May 30, 1932.

Brother Bird could trace his ancestry directly back to the Wesleys. He was converted in 1887 and had been preaching since 1891. He joined the Central Illinois Conference, on trial, in 1894, and was received in full connection in 1896. His higher education was obtained at the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Illinois, and at Barrett Biblical Institute, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts from the latter institution.

In the Central Illinois Conference he served charges at Roberts, Buckingham and Ninth Street-Rock Island. Transferring then to the Colorado Conference, he served Vineland, Goldfield, Ouray, Fruita, Asbury, Colorado Springs, Fowler, Manzanola, Las Animas, Brush, Fleming, Brighton, Limon and Wesley Institutional, Denver. Due to a severe injury, he was forced to retire from active service in 1927. As soon, however, as he was sufficiently recovered, he began again to preach and teach, continuing useful and active up to the time of his death, which came quickly and found him ready.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ella Bird, nee King; a daughter, Mrs. Ned Woodbridge of La Junta, Colorado, and her family; two sisters, and a host of friends.

The services were held at the Olinger Funeral Parlors in Denver, and in La Junta, also, where interment of the body was made.

JOSEPH G. BONNELL

(Taken from the Barry Adage, Barry, Ill.)

Joseph Gatch Bonnell was born in Batavia, Ohio, January 10, 1843. Under the influence of the home, Sunday School and church, he surrendered to Christ. He felt called to the ministry, and received license to exhort in 1863, and local preacher's license in 1864. He prepared for the ministry at Griggsville Academy, Northwestern University, and Garrett Biblical Institute. He served in the Illinois Conference from 1869 to 1888; in the St. John's River Conference from 1889 to 1895; in the Southern Illinois Conference from 1896 to 1902; and in the Colorado Conference from 1903 to 1909. He was then given the retired relation. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah C. Metz on May 12, 1870, and for over thirty-six years they shared the toils and triumphs of the itinerancy. Seven children were born to this union. His dear companion passed to her reward July 2, 1906. On November 10, 1910, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Nancy E. Smith. His years of retirement were spent in comfort. He preached frequently and wrote serial and other articles, and religious poems for publication. Since February, 1928, he made his home with his son, J. E. Bonnell, at Dallas, Texas. He passed to his reward December 12, 1931, at the age of eighty-eight years. The funeral services at Dallas on December 13 were conducted by Dr. B. F. Fleming. The burial services took place at Astoria, Illinois, on December 14, and were conducted by Rev. R. A. Carrothers. His ministry was long, eventful and effective. He is now at rest.

WILLIAM EDDY COLLETT

William Eddy Collett, son of James T. and Martha A. Collett, was born near Monroe, Ohio, September 23, 1866. Early feeling a call to the Christian ministry, he prepared for that service at Ohio Wesleyan University. In 1887 he married Miss Cora V. McElroy. In the same year he entered the ministry, to whose pastoral service he devoted seventeen years of his life. Five years of this time were spent in the Central Ohio Conference. He continued his service in Ohio in spite of impaired health until it became obvious that tuberculosis was fastening its ravages upon him.

Removing to Colorado for his health, he entered the Colorado Conference, serving as pastor at Holyoke, La Junta, Durango and Leadville. Even under the healing influences of Colorado climate, pastoral responsibilities seemed too heavy for him and again he experienced a break in health. Resigning from pastoral work, he was made Executive Secretary of the Colorado Prison Association, a position which he filled with great ability and effectiveness for twenty-seven years.

In addition, he was chaplain of the Girls' Industrial School at Morrison, serving without financial remuneration and receiving his pay in those rewards which come from loving service well done.

He took the retired relationship in the Conference in 1930, though his indomitable spirit and untiring energy kept him at work until the very day of his death. So suddenly did the summons come that practically at the moment of his passing he was in the midst of sermon preparation for the following Sunday at the Industrial School. His admonitions to the girls there were taking the mold of those that came to Moses who was directed to make all things "according to the pattern shown him in the mount." This text, the basis of a homiletical study which he never used, was also the guiding principle of his own life.

He died at his home in Arvada, Colorado, on October 13, 1931. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cora V. Collett, an only daughter, Mrs. Robert Tyler Kerr; four grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. M. Elizabeth Peoples; and a nephew, Ralph V. Peoples.

He was a member of the Arapahoe Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Knights Templar and Consistory No. 2, all of which lodges were represented at the funeral services, held from Trinity Church, Denver. The pastor, Rev. Loren M. Edwards, had charge of the services, assisted by Rev. George L. Williams of the Arvada Church. Burial was made in the Fairmount Cemetery.

JOHN W. HUSTON

(By His Daughter, Mrs. C. C. Childears, San Diego, Calif.)

John W. Huston was born in Hammondville, Ohio, July 31, 1854. His boyhood days were spent in Nebraska. He attended and graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute. From 1889 to 1892 he was president of Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, Missouri. He was a member of the Colorado Conference, retiring after thirty-five years in the ministry, in 1917. The remaining years of his life were spent in California. He passed away at Pacoima, California, August 23, 1931, and was buried in Inglewood cemetery, Los Angeles. He is survived by a widow and three children.

HENRY F. KNIGHT

(Taken from the Payette Valley Sentinel, New Plymouth, Idaho)

The "grand old man of Payette Valley" is gone. Rev. H. F. Knight, the beloved patriarch of New Plymouth, died Wednesday morning, April 6, 1932.

The community was saddened by the news much as a family is saddened by the passing of a father. The flag at school was flown at half mast, his name was on every tongue, and rightly so, because at every gathering Rev. Knight was called upon to give of his store of wisdom and humor, and he never failed to strengthen our faith; to lead us God-ward, comfort and cheer. After one talked with him, the world seemed a good place and heaven a better one.

Rev. Knight enjoyed a life full of adventure and romance. Born in Gibbsville, Wis., March 19, 1850, he was one of a family of twelve children. He was the eighth child of the family, so he laughingly called himself Henry the Eighth. He came from pioneer stock, his parents moving to Wisconsin in 1842, six years before it became a state.

To pay his expenses at school, he cared for a doctor's horse, rang the church bell, which the school used during week days, and sawed a half cord of wood, twice through, each day.

Before he was 20 he started teaching and preaching in the woods of northern Wisconsin. Two other ministers and Rev. Knight covered a circuit of nine churches every three Sundays. On one of these three Sundays he walked twenty-five miles to reach his three parishes.

Rev. Knight was united in marriage in November, 1869, to Nettie Fenneau, who shared his load through life until her death in January, 1928. Nine children were born to them, seven of whom are living: Bruce Knight of Payette; Rev. C. M. Knight of Whittier, Calif.; Elmer Knight of Clear Lake, South Dakota; Rev. Lloyd, who with his family have been living with Father Knight this winter; Mrs. Joy Burchhalter of Clifton, Colo.; Judge Wiley Knight of Brookings, South Dakota, and Clare Knight of New Plymouth.

Leaving Wisconsin when forty years of age, he went first to South Dakota, and then to Colorado in 1902, later coming to Idaho for his health.

Rev. Knight felt called to the ministry when ten years of age and he never lost sight of his life purpose. While a large family of children and a meager salary always kept him poor, he has believed implicitly that God would take care of him.

He was a member of the G. A. R. and Odd Fellows. Burial was made in Park View cemetery beside Mrs. Knight.

(From Data Supplied by Mrs. Nettie E. Martin, now of South Sterling, Pa.)

Charles Lawburgh Martin was born at Rockport, Indiana, October 13, 1872, and passed away in peaceful sleep at the Southern Methodist Hospital, Tucson, Arizona, April 3, 1932.

He received his higher education at DePauw University and Indiana University.

He was superintendent of schools for five years in Park City, Utah, and four years in Rawlins, Wyoming. While in Rawlins he was superintendent of the night school of the Wyoming Penitentiary, and later became warden of the penitentiary.

He removed to Tucson in September, 1930, after retiring, due to ill health.

He had served churches in Indiana, Utah, Wyoming and Colorado; his last charge being Hugo, Colorado.

Those left to mourn his passing are his widow, Mrs. Nettie E. Martin, six children and numerous relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held in Hedrick Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church, Tucson, Arizona. The music for the occasion was furnished by the quartette from the Friendship Sunday School Class, of which Brother Martin was a member. Pastor Chester Montague had charge of the service. The following retired ministers assisted: Dr. Junius Mead, Troy Conference; Rev. A. W. Coffman, Colorado Conference; Rev. Hoffman, Idaho Conference; Rev. Ryan, Rock River Conference, and Rev. E. M. Torrey, Holston Conference.

Interment was in the Masonic plot of the Evergreen cemetery, Tucson, Arizona.

JOHN A. SMITH

John Arthur Smith was born at Roose, Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire, England, January 25, 1881. When fourteen years of age he came to the United States, and after spending six years on a farm in northwest Iowa, and some time in Morningside College, he returned to England. He entered Shebbear College, Devonshire, to prepare himself for the ministry, and after his ordination he served for nine years as a minister of the Bible Christian Church. He returned to Northwest Iowa and was received into the Northwest Iowa Conference in 1910, and served several charges with great fidelity. He was transferred to the Colorado Conference in 1922 and served with great acceptability Ordway, Eads, Julesburg and Windsor. He was married to Louisa E. Coats, who left England to join hand and heart with her husband in the work of the Kingdom. The bride had been a deaconess and was transferred from the Methodist Deaconess Training School in London to the Deaconess Training School in Chicago under the supervision of Mrs. Lucy Rider Meyer. She served as a deaconess evangelist in Sheldon District, Northwest Iowa Conference. He died October 31, 1931. The funeral services were held at Windsor and were conducted by his district superintendent, Dr. C. O. Thibodeau, assisted by Drs. W. D. Cole and J. J. Lace. Dr. L. M. Edwards of Trinity Church, Denver, brought a message of sympathy for the saddened hearts. Bishop C. L. Mead sent a message of comfort. Brother ministers of the Greeley District acted as pallbearers, and interment was in Linn Grove cemetery, Greeley. Thirty-five members of the conference attended the funeral services. Former parishioners came a long distance to show their sympathy. The widow and the three children have the assurance of the love and sympathy of the whole Conference.

MRS. WILBUR F. STEELE

Death came softly and sweetly to Mrs. Rose W. Steele, wife of Professor Wilbur Fletcher Steele, in their home in Denver, December 21, 1931.

Mrs. Steele, whose maiden name was Rose Wood, was born in Corning, N. Y. She was making preparations to celebrate her eightieth birthday December 30 when she became ill. She studied at the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, Lima, N. Y., and when she finished there sixty years ago she was married to Dr. Steele. She, the banker's daughter, married the ten-dollar-a-week young Methodist preacher, and nobly did she grace the parsonage and wholesomely share in his work and his up-building. To them were born four children, a son, a daughter, a son, and in Germany another daughter. She was always the confidante of them all. They told her everything.

Her second son, Wilbur Daniel, of whom we have often written, has said: "Whatever literary taste and success I may have I owe to my mother. For years she took some one or two of us children to bed with her, and, one on each side, she told us history or rehearsed to us the treasures of literature by the hour."

She went with her husband, Dr. Steele, and children into home mission work in the South. Frances E. Willard, herself, her former teacher, gave her a commission for state-wide temperance instruction among the colored women.

She went with Professor Steele and three children to Germany for further study. In 1892 she came with him to Denver to live for thirty years until his retirement as professor in the University of Denver. Thereafter their home was broken up, and the years were spent in various countries and cities, the longest period in the Canal Zone. Her thirst for seeing and understanding everything made her a wide traveler. She sailed the Atlantic or Pacific sixteen times—at the age of seventy-three, alone, she went to Europe. Hundreds of its chief churches, cathedrals or buildings she could name at sight, and before eleven of the greatest paintings of the world she had sat by the hour.

She mastered world politics, history and diplomacy. Her literary productions by the score were welcomed or solicited by our editors.

That, in brief, is the story of Mrs. Rose Wood Steele. She was not so very much in society, in the later years scarcely at all.

Eight years ago Dr. Steele retired from active teaching. Shortly afterward Mrs. Steele became ill and a change of climate was advised. With her husband she went to Cristobal, where they spent three years with their daughter, Mrs. Freeman Jenness. Last September she and Dr. Steele returned to Denver.

The funeral was held at University Park Church. Dr. C. G. Hickey and Bishop Mead spoke. None of the children were there; Wilbur Daniel Steele and Mrs. Muriel Steele Hunter are in Europe, and Mrs. Beulah Jenness is in Cristobal, Canal Zone.

MRS. PHOEBE C. KIRKBRIDE

(Furnished by Rev. Archiver J. Strait, Malden, Mass.)

On Good Friday, March 25, 1932, Mrs. Phoebe Charlotte Kirkbride, the widow of Dr. Samuel H. Kirkbride, slipped away from her earthly loved ones and friends, and with a smile went forth to meet her Lord. She was residing at 417 Riverside Drive with her two sons, Bradford and Warren Kirkbride, where she went to live on the death of her husband in 1925.

Through a long and useful life she had given full proof of her love and loyalty to Christ and the work of His church. Pre-eminently she was a mother who will never be forgotten by her sons and daughter. With unceasing devotion to her husband and her family, she wove ties of family loyalty which death cannot sever. Quiet, unobtrusively, walking softly before the Lord, she impressed those who knew her as one who kept company with the Lord of Kindness and Light.

For several years she had suffered from the effects of a shock sustained in 1924. Early in February of this year she was stricken to her bed and after weeks of tender watching by her sons and daughters she passed on to the Better Land. Funeral services were conducted by her son-in-law, Rev. Archiver J. Strait of the New England Conference. The burial was at the family lot in Troy, N. Y.

WENDELL CURTIS PHIFER

Son of Rev. William D. and Susette Curtis Phifer. Born in Denver, Colorado, August 10, 1897. Died in Denver, Colorado, December 10, 1931.

DONOVAN ELLWOOD TERRY

Son of Rev. Ronald E. and Eunice Ogborn Terry. May 24, 1931-April 10, 1932.

(b) GENERAL

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

Methodism in what is now Colorado was filed upon when Bishop Scott, on April 18, 1859, read out "Pike's Peak and Cherry Creek" as one of the appointments "to be supplied" in the Kansas and Nebraska Conference, which body has since waxed to eight large Conferences. It was forthwith prospected and staked by Goode, Adriance and Reitze the following summer. March 15, 1860, it was styled the Rocky Mountain District of said Conference. From March 21, 1861, to July 10, 1863, it appeared as the Rocky Mountain District of the Kansas Conference.

Under enabling act of the General Conference of 1860, on July 10, 1863, it was organized as the Rocky Mountain Conference: Six preachers, 241 members, 32 probationers, 14 local preachers, 10 Sunday Schools, officers, teachers and scholars, 1 church worth $300.00, 1 parsonage worth $400.00.

In May, 1864, the General Conference changed its name to the present Colorado Conference. At times it has had a Dakota District, a Santa Fe District, and a Wyoming District, by reason of which last fact it held its session of 1888 at Cheyenne, Wyoming, at which time the Wyoming Mission came into existence, which in 1914 became the Wyoming State Conference, transferring 9 Coloradoans as charter members. The Spanish New Mexico work became a Conference with 30 members in 1893. Since 1888 its boundaries have been practically those of the state of Colorado, Chama, in New Mexico, being included for railway convenience in 1900.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF TRAVEL

All transportation cost inside Conference bounds to and from the Conference seat, except Pullmans, reckoned upon the shortest clergy permit basis if obtainable, shall be equalized for all members and probationers of this Conference, as well as for Supplies, in Charge, Candidates and Transfers, except the Retired or Deaconess whose claim is less than the average fare. The Equalizer shall report to the Conference the name of any declining to share or to contribute a pass. Balances are after printing and postage are paid.

(a) PLAN OF CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS

SUMMARY OF THE RULES OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

(a) Candidates for Reception on Trial

Candidates for Reception on Trial may take examinations during the year, on recommendation of their District Superintendent, under Supervisors properly appointed.

(b) Those in the Regular Course

1. May take examinations during the year under Supervisors properly appointed by arranging therefor with the Registrar.

2. No undergraduate shall be entitled to advanced classification who is delinquent or has failed to pass, in two (2) books to be studied, or three (3) books to be read, or in one (1) book to be studied and two (2) to be read. For either Reception on Trial, or Admission in Full, and for ordination as Elder, the law permits no "conditions" whatever.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. All those pursuing the course of study shall contribute the sum of fifty cents per annum to defray the expenses of examinations.

2. All persons working in Missions, who are seeking Reception on Trial or are pursuing the course of study under the auspices of this Conference, shall be required to pass the examinations submitted by the Conference Board before they shall be Received on Trial or advanced in the year's studies, unless the examination is in course in a foreign language.

3. All candidates for Reception on Trial and all undergraduates who have not completed their examinations shall meet the examining board at the seat of Conference the day before the session opens, to close the work of the year.

4. The examining board shall not be required to give any examination or to examine or report on any written sermon or essay after the opening of the Conference session, except at the option of the Board on satisfactory reason for not appearing within the time above specified.

(b) CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

1. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference. In case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the President may state the grounds of his decision, and the appellant may state the grounds of his appeal.

2. The President shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise especially ordered by the Conference.

3. On assigning the floor to any member of the Conference, the President shall distinctly announce the name of the member to whom it is assigned.

4. No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave, unless he be unable to attend.

5. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall arise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

6. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

7. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a privileged question.

8. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken; provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or one of its members selected by the committee or its chairman, in all cases be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate; either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, his permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt.

9. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the President, Secretary, or any member requests it.

10. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the Secretary, to be by him read to the Conference.

11. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced or seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference.

12. The following motions shall be taken without debate:

- (1) To adjourn.
- (2) To suspend the rules.
- (3) To lay on the table.
- (4) To take from the table.
- (5) To raise the question of consideration.
- (6) Call for the previous question.
- (7) To reconsider a non-debatable motion.

13. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection; but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are given, namely:

- (1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
- (2) To adjourn.
- (3) To take a recess.
- (4) To lay on the table.
- (5) To order the previous question (cannot be laid on the table).
- (6) To postpone to a given time.
- (7) To refer.
- (8) To substitute.
- (9) To amend.
- (10) To postpone indefinitely.

14. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but then it shall be in order to move a substitute for the main question and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted it shall replace the original proposition.

15. It shall be in order to move the previous question—that is, that the question be taken without further debate—on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer or to recommit (on either of which the vote shall be taken without debate): to divide or to lay on the table, after the previous question has been ordered. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except

- (1) When a member has the floor.
- (2) When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, or until decided.
- (3) When the question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question.
- (4) When the previous question has been called and sustained, and action under it is still pending; and
- (5) When a motion to adjourn has been negatived; and no business or debate has intervened.

17. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.

19. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by forty members present, the vote thereon shall be taken by ayes and noes.

20. These rules may be suspended at any time by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

(c) ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION And By-Laws of the Colorado Conference

The Articles of Incorporation are filed at the State House and with the Conference Secretary. Following are the By-Laws adopted on September 6, 1924, at Pueblo, Colorado:

1. Trustees. The persons lawfully selected as Resident Bishop, District Superintendents, and Secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Colorado Annual Conference from time to time, shall during their term of office, by virtue of their having been so selected, be deemed as elected the Conference Trustees.

2. The Resident Bishop shall be the President; the Superintendent of the Denver District the Vice-President, and the Conference Secretary shall be the Secretary-Treasurer of the Trustees. These officers shall perform the usual duties of such officers, the Conference Secretary keeping the official record book of the Trustees.

3. Meetings. The annual meeting shall be held at the call of the President or Vice-President at the time and seat of the Annual Conference session. Special meetings may be held at the call of the President or Vice-President elsewhere, a quorum for which shall consist of a majority of the Trustees, provided the Conference Secretary shall be one of those present. In an emergency, any action or document stating who and how many are the Trustees, and signed by a majority of those persons, provided the Conference Secretary is one of the signers, shall be a valid act of the Board.

4. The seal of the Board shall be the usual device of the (L.S.) on legal instruments.

5. These By-Laws may be changed at any meeting by a two-thirds vote of the Trustees.

XI. Pastoral Record

(a) ANNUITY CLAIMANTS

IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT ANNUITY CLAIMS

The support of these Claimants for any quarter depends upon what the Church Treasurers remit the preceding quarter. Also it is the Conference order that all deficit in Conference Claimants' receipts from charges at a session of Conference shall in proportion reduce the following fourth quarter's check to Claimants.

The Minimum Disciplinary Annuity Rate for the Colorado Conference for 1928-31 was announced as $6.00 per quarter for each annuity year of a retired minister. The churches should send in their apportionments quarterly and fully or pro rata to each settlement day, not later than the end of each quarter—December 10, March 10, June 10.

Attention of pastors and church treasurers is called to the fact that all checks for support of Conference Claimants are to be sent to the Secretary of the Board of Stewards, E. N. Edgerton, Room 312 Trinity Building, Denver, Colo.

Vouchers for checks received on apportionments will be mailed to the pastors of the churches from which they come. Treasurers may have a duplicate voucher if they request it, otherwise the cancelled check will be their receipt.

It is to be borne in mind that the Claimants cannot be paid unless the Charges pay in each quarter the amount of their quarterly apportionments. We give below a tabulation of the Claimants and their claims based on the $22.00 rate, reminding the brethren that the legal rate is $24.00 and that the hope is that the balance can be made good to the Claimant after Conference next year.

On the death of any minister not on the retired list, the annuity claims of his dependents begin at once.

A claim is liable to lawful reduction or to extinction at the end of any quarter.

(c) ANNUITY RECORD

DETAILED SERVICE ANNUITY RECORD

This is the "Detailed Service Annuity Record" of the members and probationers of the Colorado Annual Conference, as made out by themselves and submitted to the Secretary of the Board of Stewards. These records are subject to correction by the members themselves and by a careful check with the General Minutes of the Church through the central office of the Board of Pensions and Relief in Chicago. In the interest of the strictest accuracy in the records, we invite communications at any time from those whose names here appear. Please address (all such to) the Secretary of the Board of Stewards.

The first named year marks the date of Admission on Trial. The (*) denotes the date of Reception into Full Membership. The symbol () marks the year of Graduation from the Conference Course of Study.

The Discipline allows four years in the course of study as Annuity Years, two of which are probationary years.

The parenthetical figure at the end of each record is our estimate of the number of Annuity Years standing to the credit of that member, as reckoned to June 1, 1932.

Correctness in these data is imperative in order to make a quarter's annuity immediately available for a widow in case of the death of a member.

If a death occur in the family of any member of which cognizance should be taken by the Board of Stewards, immediately notify E. N. Edgerton, Secretary, 312 Trinity Building, Denver, Colorado. This would include the death of husband or wife or that of a minor child.

● There was nothing pretentious about the simple religious services held on the banks of the Platte in the fall of 1858, but they marked the beginning of growth and expansion in church facilities that has spread from Denver throughout Colorado for three-quarters of a century.

● Much of the credit for the progress and achievements written into Colorado history is due to those men and women who so early established and who have so faithfully maintained the higher standards of thought, work and service.
